

The purpose of this diagram is to show in a holistic manner, the various elements that need to be considered. The size of the boxes do not indicate any specific weighting of importance but merely their broad positioning in one of the 7 strands.